Location of the conference

Université de Lorraine
Campus Lettres et Sciences Humaines (CLSH)
23 boulevard Albert 1er
54000 Nancy, France

Welcome and registration: Room A104

How to get there:

Nancy can be reached by direct high-speed train from Paris, and there are also direct trains from Montpellier, Lyons and Strasbourg.

It is also possible to take a train to the Lorraine TGV station, which is about 20 miles from the city centre (a regular bus service is available between the TGV station and Nancy) from major provincial cities (including Lille, Bordeaux and Nantes) and the Paris Charles de Gaulle airport. Air France offers combined air/high-speed train tickets to the Lorraine TGV station.

The Social Sciences and Humanities campus (CLSH) is a ten-minute walk from the main Nancy railway station.

The conference will take place in room A104, on the first floor of A Building.

There is a regular bus between the city centre and the campus (line 2).

Registration and fees

Fees are 50 euros for academics and 15 euros for doctoral students.

This includes registration for the conference, three lunches, a meal in a restaurant on Friday evening and the field trip.
